Chapter _____

And now I Jacob speak unto you again my beloved Brethren concerning this righteous branch of which I have spoken for behold the promises which we have obtained are promises unto us according to the flesh wherefore as it hath been shewn unto me that many of our children shall perish in the flesh because of unbelief nevertheless God will be merciful unto many & our Children shall be restored that they may come to that which will give them the true knowledge of their redeemer

wherefore as I said unto you it must needs be expediant th-at Christ for in the last night the Angel spake unto me that this should be his name thôt he should come among the Jews among they which are the more wick-ed part of the world & they shall crucify him for it behoveth our God & there is no-ne other Nation on earth that would crucify their God for should the mighty mi-acles be wrought among other Nations they would repent & know that he be the(ir) God

but because of Priests crafts & iniquities they at Jerusalem will stiffen the(ir) necks against him that he be crucified

wherefore because of their iniquities de-structions famines pestilences & bloodshed shall come upon them & they which shall not be destroyed shall be scattered among all Nations but behold thus sa-ith the Lord God when the day cometh that they shall believe in me that I am Chr-ist then have I covenanted with their fathers that they shall be restored in the flesh upon the earth unto the lands of their inheritance

& it shall come to pass that they shall be gathered in from their long dispersion from the Isles of the Sea & from the four parts of the earth & the Nations of the Gentiles shall be great in the eyes of me saith God in carrying them forth to the lands of their inheritance

CHAPTER 10 [X] [_____]

Jacob explains that the Jews will crucify their God—They will be scattered until they begin to believe in Him—America will be a land of liberty where no king will rule—Reconcile yourselves to God and gain salvation through His grace. About 559–545 B.C.

¹And now I, Jacob, speak unto you again, my beloved brethren, concerning this righteous branch of which I have spoken.

²For behold, the promises which we have obtained are promises unto us according to the flesh; wherefore, as it has[] been shown unto me that many of our children shall perish in the flesh because of unbelief, nevertheless, God will be merciful unto many; and our chi[-]ldren shall be restored, that they may come to that which will give them the true kn[-]owledge of their Redeemer.

³Wherefore, as I said unto you, it must needs be expedient th[-]at Christ—for in the last night the angel spake unto me that this should be his name—[_ _ _] [X] should come among the Jews, among those who are the more wick[-]ed part of the world; and they shall crucify him—for thus it behooveth our God, and there is no[-]ne other nation on earth that would crucify their God.

⁴For should the mighty mi[-]acles be wrought among other nations they would repent, and know that he be the(ir) God.

⁵But because of priest[_ _] crafts and iniquities, they at Jerusalem will stiffen the(ir) necks against him, that he be crucified.

⁶Wherefore, because of their iniquities, de[-]structions, famines, pestilences, and bloodshed shall come upon them; and they who shall not be destroyed shall be scattered among all nations.

⁷But behold, thus sa[-]ith the Lord God: When the day cometh that they shall believe in me, that I am Chr[-]ist, then have I covenanted with their fathers that they shall be restored in the flesh, upon the earth, unto the lands of their inheritance.

⁸And it shall come to pass that they shall be gathered in from their long dispersion, from the isles of the sea, and from the four parts of the earth; and the nations of the Gentiles shall be great in the eyes of me, saith God, in carrying them forth to the lands of their inheritance.
