

& then will I sing to my (well) beloved a song of my beloved to-uching his vineyard my well beloved hath a vineyard in a verry fruitful hill

& he fenced it & gathered out the stones thereof & planted it with the choicest vine & built a tower in the midst of it & also made a winepress therein & he looked that it should bring forth grapes & it brought forth wild grapes

& now O inhabitants of Jeru-salem & men of Judah Judge I pray you betwixt me & my vineyard

what could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it wherefore whe-n I looked that it should bring forth grapes it brought forth wild grapes

& no-w go to I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard I will take away the hedge thereof & it shall be eaten up & I will break down the wall thereof & it shall be troden down

& I will lay it waste it shall not be pruned nor dig(g)ed 71 but there shall Come up briers & thorns I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it for the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel & the men of Judah his pleasant plant & he looked for Judgment & behold oppression for righteousness (but ~~but~~) & behold a cry wo unto them that join house to house till there can be no place that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth in mine(ears) saith the Lord of hosts of a truth many houses shall be desolate & great & fair cities without inhabitant yea ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath & the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah

CHAPTER 15

The Lord's vineyard (Israel) will become desolate, and His people will be scattered—Woes will come upon them in their apostate and scattered state—The Lord will lift an ensign and gather Israel—Compare Isaiah 5. About 559–545 B.C.

<sup>1</sup>And then will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved, to[-]uching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a ver[ ]y fruitful hill.

<sup>2</sup>And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein; and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

<sup>3</sup>And now, O inhabitants of Jeru[-]salem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? Wherefore, whe[-]n I looked that it should bring forth grapes it brought forth wild grapes.

<sup>5</sup>And no[-]w go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard—I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and I will break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down;

<sup>6</sup>And I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

<sup>7</sup>For the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant; and he looked for judgment, and behold, oppression; for righteousness, but [X] [X] behold, a cry.

<sup>8</sup>Wo unto them that join house to house, till there can be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

<sup>9</sup>In mine[ ]ears, said[ ] the Lord of Hosts, of a truth many houses shall be desolate, and great and fair cities without inhabitant.

<sup>10</sup>Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah.

therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble & the flame consumeth the chaff their root shall be rottenness & their blossom shall go up as dust because they have cast away the law of the Lord & (of) the hosts & despised the word of the holy one of Israel

therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his People & he hath stretched forth his hand against them & hath smitten them & the hills did tremble & their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets for all this his anger is not turned away but his hand is stretched out still

& he will lift up an ensign to the Nations from far & will hiss unto them from the end of the earth & behold they shall come with speed swiftly none shall be weary nor stumble among them

none shall slumber nor sleep neither shall ~~they~~ 72 the girdle of their loins be loosed nor the latchet of their shoes be broken whose arrows shall be sharp & all their bows bent & their horses hoofs shall be counted like flint & their wheels like a whirlwind their roaring like a lion
