CHAPTER 19

Isaiah speaks messianically—The people in darkness will see a great light—Unto us a child is born—He will be the Prince of Peace and will reign on David's throne—Compare Isaiah 9. About 559–545 B.C.

¹Nevertheless, the dimness shall not be such as was in her vex(ation), when at first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naph[-]tali, and afterwards did more griev[]ously afflict by the way of the Red Sea beyond Jordan in Gal[]ilee of the nations.

²The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

³Thou hast multiplied the nation, and increased the joy—they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as [X] men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

⁴For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppre[-]ssor.

⁵For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

⁶For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called, Wonderful, Counsel[]or, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

⁷Of the increase of government and peace there is no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth, even forever. The zeal of the Lord of Hosts will perform this.

⁸The Lord sent his word unto Jacob and it hath lighted upon Is[-]rael.

⁹And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart:

¹⁰The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.
