About 62–57 B.C.

And now it came to pass that when Moroni had received this Epistle his heart did take courage & was filled with exceding(great) joy because of the faith--fulness of Pahoran that he was not also a traitor to the freedom & cause of his cou--ntry

¹And now it came to pass that when Moroni had received this epistle his heart did take courage, and was filled with exceeding~~ly~~ly[]great joy because of the faith~~[-]~~[-]fulness of Pahoran, that he was not also a traitor to the freedom and cause of his cou~~[-]~~[-]ntry.

but he did also mourn exceedingly because of the iniquity of those who had driven Pahoran from the Judgmentseat yea in fine because of those who had rebell--ed against their country & also their God

²But he did also mourn exce~~ed~~edingly because of the iniquity of those who had driven Pahoran from the judgment-seat, yea, in fine because of those who had rebell~~[-]~~[-]ed against their country and also their God.

& it came to pass that Moroni took a small number of men according to the desire of Pahoran & gave Lehi & Teancum command ~~o~~(over)~~fer~~ the remainder of his army & took his march towards the land of Gideon

³And it came to pass that Moroni took a small number of men, according to the desire of Pahoran, and gave Lehi and Teancum command []over[_ _] the remainder of his army, and took his march towards the land of Gideon.

& he did raise the standard of liberty in whatsoever place he did enter & gained whatsoever force he could in all his march towards the land of Gideon

⁴And he did raise the standard of liberty in whatsoever place he did enter, and gained whatsoever force he could in all his march towards the land of Gideon.

& it came to pass ~~that~~that thousands did flock unto his standard & did take up their swords in the defence of their freedom that they might not come into ~~be~~(bondage)~~ng~~

⁵And it came to pass []that[_ _] thousands did flock unto his standard, and did take up their swords in the defence of their freedom, that they might not come into [_]bondage[_].

& thus when Moroni had gathered together whatsoever men he could in all his march he came to the land of Gideon & uniting his forces with those of Pahorons they became exceding strong even (stronger) than the men of Pachus which was the King of those dissenters which had driven out the freemen out of the land of Zarahemla & had taken possession of the land

⁶And thus, when Moroni had gathered together whatsoever men he could in all his march, he came to the land of Gideon; and uniting his forces with those of Pahoran[] they became exce~~ed~~edingly strong, even stronger than the men of Pachus, who was the king of those dissenters who had driven [X] the freemen out of the land of Zarahemla and had taken possession of the land.

& it came to pass that Moroni & Pahoran went down with their armies into the land of Zarahemla & went forth against the city & did meet the men of Pachus insomuch that they did come to battle

⁷And it came to pass that Moroni and Pahoran went down with their armies into the land of Zarahemla, and went forth against the city, and did meet the men of Pachus, insomuch that they did come to battle.

& behold Pachus was slain & his men were taken prisoners & Pahoran was restored to his Judgment--seat

& the men of Pachus received their trial according to the law & also those Kingmen which had been taken & cast into prison & they were executed according to the law yea those men of Pachus & those Kingmen whosever would not take up arms in (the) defence of their country but would fight against it were put to death

& thus it became expediant that this law should be strictly observed 326 for the safety of their country yea & whosoever was found denying their freedom was speedily executed according to the law

& thus ended the thirtieth year of the reign of the Judges over the people of Nephi Moroni & Pahoran having restored peace to the land of Zarahemla among their own people having inflicted death upon all those who were not true to the cause of freedom

& it came to pass in the commencement of the thirty & first year of the reign of the Judges over the people of Nephi Moroni immediately caused that Provisions should be sent & also an army of six thousand men should be sent unto Helaman to assist him in preserving that part of the land

& he also caused that an army of six thousand men with a sufficient quantity of food should be sent to the armies of Lehi & Teancum & it came to pass that this was done to fortify the land against the Lamanites

& it came to pass that Moroni & Pahoran leaving a large body of men in the land of Zarahemla took their march with a large body of men towards the land of Nephi-hah being determined to overthrow the Lamanites in that city

& it came to pass (that) as they were marching towards the land they took a large body of men of the Lamanites & slew many of them & took their provisions & their weapons of war

& it came to pass after they had taken them they caused them to enter into a covenant that they would no more take up their weapons of war against the Nephites

⁸And behold, Pachus was slain and his men were taken prisoners, and Pahoran was restored to his judgment[-][-]seat.

⁹And the men of Pachus received their trial, according to the law, and also those king-men who had been taken and cast into prison; and they were executed according to the law; yea, those men of Pachus and those king-men, whosever would not take up arms in the defence of their country, but would fight against it, were put to death.

¹⁰And thus it became expedient that this law should be strictly observed for the safety of their country; yea, and whosoever was found denying their freedom was speedily executed according to the law.

¹¹And thus ended the thirtieth year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi; Moroni and Pahoran having restored peace to the land of Zarahemla, among their own people, having inflicted death upon all those who were not true to the cause of freedom.

¹²And it came to pass in the commencement of the thirty and first year of the reign of the judges over the people of Nephi, Moroni immediately caused that provisions should be sent, and also an army of six thousand men should be sent unto Helaman, to assist him in preserving that part of the land.

¹³And he also caused that an army of six thousand men, with a sufficient quantity of food, should be sent to the armies of Lehi and Teancum. And it came to pass that this was done to fortify the land against the Lamanites.

¹⁴And it came to pass that Moroni and Pahoran, leaving a large body of men in the land of Zarahemla, took their march with a large body of men towards the land of Nephi[-]hah, being determined to overthrow the Lamanites in that city.

¹⁵And it came to pass that as they were marching towards the land, they took a large body of men of the Lamanites, and slew many of them, and took their provisions and their weapons of war.

¹⁶And it came to pass after they had taken them, they caused them to enter into a covenant that they would no more take up their weapons of war against the Nephites.

thus had Moroni & Pahoran obtained the possession of the city of Nephiah without the loss of one soul & there were many of the Lamanites which were slain

now it came to pass that as many of the Lamanites that were prisoners were desirous to join the people of Ammon & to become a free people

& it came to pass (that) as many as were desirous unto them it was granted according to their desires

therefore all the prisoners of the Lamanites did join the people of Ammon & did begin to labour exceedingly tilling the ground raising all manner of grain & flocks & herds of every kind & thus were the Nephites relieved from a great burthen yea in so much that they were thus relieved from all the prisoners of the Lamanites

now it came to pass that Moroni after he had obtained possession of the city (of) Nephiah having taken many prisoners which did reduce the armies of the Lamanites exceedingly & having regained many of the Nephites which had been taken prisoners which did strengthen the army of Moroni exceedingly therefore Moroni went forth from the land of Nephiah to the land of Lehi

& it came to pass that when the Lamanites saw that Moroni was a coming against them they were again frightened & fled before the army of Moroni

& the armies of the Lamanites were all gathered together in so much that they were all in one body in the land of Moroni now Ammoron the King of the Lamanites was also with them

& it came to pass that Moroni & Lehi & Teancum did encamp with their armies round about in the borders of the land of Moroni in so much that the Lamanites were encircled about in the borders by the wilderness on the south & in the borders by the wilderness on the east

²⁶Thus had Moroni and Pahoran obtained the possession of the city of Nephiah without the loss of one soul; and there were many of the Lamanites who were slain.
