Chapter

And now Jacob spake many more things to my people at that time nevertheless only these things have I caused to be written for the things which I have written sufficeth me

& now I Nephi write more of the words of Isaiah for my Soul delighteth in his words for I will liken his words unto my People & I will send them forth unto all my Children for he verily saw my redeemer 68 even as I have seen him

& my Brother Jacob also hath seen him as I have seen him wherefore I will send their words forth unto my children to prove unto them that my words are true wherefore by the words of three God hath said I will establish my word nevertheless God sendeth more witnesses & he proveth all his words

behold my soul delighteth in proveing unto my People the truth of the comeing of Christ for for this end hath the law of Moses been given & all things which have been given of God from the beginning of the world unto man are the typifying of him

& also my soul delighteth in the covenants of the Lord which he hath made to our fathers yea my soul delighteth in his grace & his Justice & power & mercy in the great & eternal plan of deliverance from death

& my soul delighteth in proveing unto my People that save christ should come all men must perish

for if there be no Christ there be no God & if there be no God we are not for there could have been no Creation but there is a God & he is Christ & he cometh in the fullness of his own time

& now I write some of the words of Isaiah that whoso of my People which shall see these words may lift up their hearts & rejoice for all men now these are the words & ye may liken them unto you & unto all men

CHAPTER 11 [X]

Jacob saw his Redeemer—The law of Moses typifies Christ and proves He will come. About 559–545 B.C.

<sup>1</sup>And now, Jacob spake many more things to my people at that time; nevertheless only these things have I caused to be written, for the things which I have written sufficeth me.

<sup>2</sup>And now I, Nephi, write more of the words of Isaiah, for my soul delighteth in his words. For I will liken his words unto my people, and I will send them forth unto all my children, for he verily saw my Redeemer, even as I have seen him.

<sup>3</sup>And my brother, Jacob, also has[] seen him as I have seen him; wherefore, I will send their words forth unto my children to prove unto them that my words are true. Wherefore, by the words of three, God hath said, I will establish my word. Nevertheless, God sendeth more witnesses, and he proveth all his words.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, my soul delighteth in prov[]ing unto my people the truth of the com[]ing of Christ; for, for this end hath the law of Moses been given; and all things which have been given of God from the beginning of the world, unto man, are the typifying of him.

<sup>5</sup>And also my soul delighteth in the covenants of the Lord which he hath made to our fathers; yea, my soul delighteth in his grace, and in his justice, and power, and mercy in the great and eternal plan of deliverance from death.

<sup>6</sup>And my soul delighteth in prov[]ing unto my people that save Christ should come all men must perish.

<sup>7</sup>For if there be no Christ there be no God; and if there be no God we are not, for there could have been no creation. But there is a God, and he is Christ, and he cometh in the ful[]ness of his own time.

<sup>8</sup>And now I write some of the words of Isaiah, that whoso of my people [X] shall see these words may lift up their hearts and rejoice for all men. Now these are the words, and ye may liken them unto you and unto all men.
