

the word that Isaiah the Son of ^{f Amoz Amos} Amos saw concerning Judah & Jerusalem

& it shall come to pass in the last days when the mountain of the Lords house shall be established in the top of the mountains & shall be exalted above the ~~te~~ hills & all Nations shall flow unto it

& many People shall go & say come ye & let us go up to the mountain of the Lord to the house of the God of Jacob & he will teach us of his ways & we will walk in his paths for out of Zion shall go forth the law & the word of the Lord from Jerusalem

& he shall Judge among the Nations & shall rebuke many People & they shall beat their swords into plow shares & their spears into pruning hooks Nation shall not lift up sword against Nation neither shall they learn war any more

O house of Jacob come ye & let us walk in the light of the Lord yea come for ye havee all gone astray every one to his wicked ways therefore O Lord thou hast forsaken thy People the house of Jacob because they be replenished from the east & hearken unto soothsayers like the Philistines & they please themselves in the children of strangers their land also is full of silver & Goðd neither is there any end of their treasures their land is also full of horses neither is there any end of their Charriots their land also is full of Idols they worship the work of their own hands that which their own fingers have made

& the mean men boweth down & the great man humbleth himself not therefore forgive him not

O ye wicked Ones enter into the rock & hide thee in the dust for the fear of the Lord & the glory of his magesty shall smite thee

CHAPTER 12

Isaiah sees the latter-day temple, gathering of Israel, and millennial judgment and peace—The proud and wicked will be brought low at the Second Coming—Compare Isaiah 2. About 559–545 B.C.

¹The word that Isaiah, the son of Amoz [X] [X], saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

²And it shall come to pass in the last days, when the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be ex[]alted above the [X] hills, and all nations shall flow unto it.

³And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths; for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

⁴And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into prun[]ing-hooks—nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

⁵O house of Jacob, come ye and let us walk in the light of the Lord; yea, come, for ye have [] all gone astray, every one to his wicked ways.

⁶Therefore, O Lord, thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and hearken unto soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

⁷Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their char[]iots.

⁸Their land is also full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

⁹And the mean man boweth not down, and the great man humbleth himself not, therefore, forgive him not.

¹⁰O ye wicked ones, enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for the fear of the Lord and the glory of his majesty shall smite thee.
