

wo unto them that decree unrighteous decrees & that write grievousness which they have prescribed to turn aside the needy from Judgment & to take away the right from the poor of my People that widows may be their prey & that they may rob the fatherless

& what will ye do in the day of visitation & in the desolation which shall come from far to whom will ye flee for help & where will ye leave your glory without me they shall bow down under the prisoners & they shall fall under the slain for all this his anger is not turned away but his hand stretched out still

O Assyrian the rod of mine anger & the staff in their hand is their indignation

I will send him against a hypocritical Nation & against the People of my wrath will I give him a Charge to take the spoil & to take the prey & to tread them down like the mire of the streets howbeit he meaneth not so neither doth his heart think so but in his heart it is to destroy & cut off nations not a few for he saith are not my princes altogether kings is not Calno as Carchemish is not Hamath as Arpad is not 76 Samaria as Damascus as my hand hath founded the Kingdoms of the Idols & whose graven images them of Jerusalem & of Samaria shall I not as I have done unto Samaria & her Idols so do to Jerusalem & to her Idols wherefore it shall come to pass that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion & upon Jerusalem I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the King of Assyria & the glory of his high looks

CHAPTER 20

The destruction of Assyria is a type of the destruction of the wicked at the Second Coming— Few people will be left after the Lord comes again—The remnant of Jacob will return in that day—Compare Isaiah 10. About 559–545 B.C.

¹Wo unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write griev[]ousness which they have prescribed;

²To turn away the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

³And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

⁴Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

⁵O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the[] staff in their hand is their indignation.

⁶I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

⁷Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but in his heart it is to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

⁸For he saith: Are not my princes altogether kings?

⁹Is not Calno as Carchemish? Is not Hamath as Arpad? Is not Samaria as Damascus?

¹⁰As my hand hath founded the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

¹¹Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and to her idols?

¹²Wherefore it shall come to pass that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon Mount Zion and upon Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

for he saith by the strength of my hand & by my wisdom I have done these things for I am prudent & I have moved the borders of the People & have robed their treasures & I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man

& my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the People & as one gathereth eggs that are left have I gathered all the earth & there was none that moved the wing or opened the mouth or peeped shall the Axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up or as if the staff should lift up itself as if it were no wood therefore shall the Lord the Lord of hosts send among his fat ones leanness & under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire

& the light of Israel shall be for a fire & his holy one for a flame & shall burn & shall devour his thors & his briers in one day

& shall consume the glory of his forest & of his fruitful field both Soul & body & they shall be as when a standard bearer feinteth

& the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few that a child may write them

& it shall come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel & such as are escaped of the house of Jacob shall no more again stay upon him that smote them but shall stay upon the Lord the holy one of Israel in truth

the remnant shall return yea even the remnant of Jacob unto the mighty God for though thy People Israel be as the sand of the Sea ~~y^{vet}et~~ a remnant of them shall return the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness for the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption even determined in all the land

therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts O my People that dwellest in Zion be not afraid of the Assyrian he shall smite thee with a rod & shall lift up his staff against thee after the manner of Egypt

¹³For he saith: By the strength of my hand and by my wisdom I have done these things; for I am prudent; and I have moved the borders of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man;
