now it came to pass that after Amulek had made an end of these words they withdrew themselves from the multitude & came over into the land of Jershon

yea & the rest of the brethren after they had Poreached the word unto the Zoramites also came over into the land of Jershon

& it came to pass that after the more popular part of the Zoramites had consulted together Concerning the words which had been preached unto them they were angry because of the word for it did destroy their craft therefore they would not hearken unto there ords

& they sent & gathered together throughout all the land all the People & consulted with them concerning the words which had been spoken

now their Rulers & their Priests & their teachers did not let the People ~~now~~ know concerning their desires therefore they found out privily the minds of all the People

& it came to pass hhat after they had found out the minds of all the People these which arere in favor of the rords which <sup>had</sup> 260 been spoken by Alma & his brethren were cast out of the land & they were many & they came over also into the lawd of Jershon

& it came to pass that Alma & his brethren did misister unto them

now the People of the Zoramites were angry with the Peopee of Ammon which were in Jershons & the Chiff Ruler of the Zoramites being a very wicked man sent over unto the Peopee of Ammon desireing them that they should cast out of their land all those which come over from them into their land

CHAPTER 35

The preaching of the word destroys the craft of the Zoramites—They expel the converts, who then join the people of Ammon in Jershon—Alma sorrows because of the wickedness of the people. About 74 B.C.

<sup>1</sup>Now it came to pass that after Amulek [ ] had made an end of these words, they withdrew themselves from the multitude and came over into the land of Jershon.

<sup>2</sup>Yea, and the rest of the brethren, after they had p[ ] reached the word unto the Zoramites, also came over into the land of Jershon.

<sup>3</sup>And it came to pass that after the more popular part of the Zoramites had consulted together concerning the words which had been preached unto them, they were ang[ ]ry because of the word, for it did destroy their craft; therefore they would not hearken unto the[ ] words.

<sup>4</sup>And they sent and gathered together throughout all the land all the people, and consulted with them concerning the words which had been spoken.

<sup>5</sup>Now their rulers and their priests and their teachers did not let the people [ _ _ _ ] know concerning their desires; therefore they found out privil[ ]y the minds of all the people.

<sup>6</sup>And it came to pass that after they had found out the minds of all the people, those who were in favor of the words which had been spoken by Alma and his brethren were cast out of the land; and they were many; and they came over also into the land of Jershon.

<sup>7</sup>And it came to pass that Alma and his brethren did minister unto them.

<sup>8</sup>Now the people of the Zoramites were ang[ ]ry with the people of Ammon who were in Jershon[ ], and the chief ruler of the Zoramites, being a ver[ ]y wicked man, sent over unto the people of Ammon desir[ ]ing them that they should cast out of their land all those who came over from them into their land.
