

The Book of Ether

THE BOOK OF ETHER

The record of the Jaredites, taken from the twenty-four plates found by the people of Limhi in the days of King Mosiah.

Chapter— I—

CHAPTER 1 [X_ _]

Moroni abridges the writings of Ether—Ether's genealogy is set forth—The language of the Jaredites is not confounded at the Tower of Babel—The Lord promises to lead them to a choice land and make them a great nation.

And now I Moroni 429 proceed to give an account of those ancient inhabitants which were destroyed by the hand of the Lord upon the face of this north country

¹And now I, Moroni, proceed to give an account of those ancient inhabitants who were destroyed by the hand of the Lord upon the face of this north country.

& I take mine account from the twenty & four plates which were found by the people of Limhi which is called the Book of Ether

²And I take mine account from the twenty and four plates which were found by the people of Limhi, which is called the Book of Ether.

& as I suppose that the first part of this record which speaketh concerning the creation of the world & also of Adam & an account from that time even to the great tower & whatsoever things transpired among the children of men until that time is had among the Jews

³And as I suppose that the first part of this record, which speaks[_ _] concerning the creation of the world, and also of Adam, and an account from that time even to the great tower, and whatsoever things transpired among the children of men until that time, is had among the Jews—

therefore I do not write those things which transpired from the days of Adam until that time but they are had upon the plates & whoso findeth them the same will have power that he may get the full account ⁴Therefore I do not write those things which transpired from the days of Adam until that time; but they are had upon the plates; and whoso findeth them, the same will have power that he may get the full account.

but behold I give not the æ full account but a part of the account I give from the tower down until they were destroyed

⁵But behold, I give not the [_ _] full account, but a part of the account I give, from the tower down until they were destroyed.

& on this wise do I give the account He that wrote this account was Ether & he was a descendant of Coriantor

⁶And on this wise do I give the account. He that wrote this record was Ether, and he was a descendant of Coriantor.

& Coriantor was the Son of Moron

⁷[X] Coriantor was the son of Moron.
