CHAPTER 6 [X]

The Jaredite barges are driven by the winds to the promised land—The people praise the Lord for His goodness—Orihah is appointed king over them—Jared and his brother die.

¹And now I, Moroni, proceed to give the record of Jared and his brother.

²For it came to pass [X] after [X] the Lord had prepared the stones which the brother of Jared had carried up into the mount, the brother of Jared came down out of the mount, and he did put forth the stones into the vessels which were prepared, one in each end thereof; and behold, they did give light unto the vessels [_ _ _ _ _].

³And thus the Lord caused stones to shine in darkness, to give light unto men, women, and children, that they might not cross the great waters in darkness.

⁴And it came to pass that when they had prepared all manner of food, that thereby they might subsist upon the water, and also food for their flocks and herds, and whatsoever beast or animal or fowl that they should carry with them [_]—and it came to pass that when they had done all these things they got a [_] board of their vessels or barges, and set forth into the sea, commending themselves unto the Lord their God.

⁵And it came to pass that the Lord God caused that there should be a furious wind blow upon the face of the waters, towards the promised land; and thus they were tossed upon the waves of the sea before the wind.

⁶And it came to pass that they were many times buried in the depths of the sea, because of the mountain waves which broke upon them, and also the great and terrible tempests which were caused by the fierceness of the wind.

⁷And [X]it came to pass that when they were buried in the deep there was no water that could hurt them, their vessels being tight like unto a dish [_ _] [X] [_ _], and also they were tight like unto the [_] ark of Noah; therefore when they were encompassed about by many waters they did cry unto the Lord, and he did bring them forth again upon the top of the waters.
