CHAPTER 2

Mormon leads the Nephite armies—Blood and carnage sweep the land—The Nephites lament and mourn with the sorrowing of the damned—Their day of grace is passed—Mormon obtains the plates of Nephi—Wars continue. About A.D. 327–50.

¹And it came to pass [_ _ _] in that same year there began to be a war again between the Nephites and the Lamanites. And notwithstanding I being young, was large in stature; therefore the people of Nephi appointed me that I should be their leader, or the leader of their armies.

²Therefore it came to pass that in my sixteenth year I did go forth at the head of an army of the Nephit[_]es, against the Lamanites; therefore three hundred and twenty and six years had passed away.

³And it came to pass that in the three hundred and twent[_]y and seventh year the Lamanites did come upon us with exceedingly great power, in[_]somuch that they did frighten my armies; therefore they would not fight, and they began to retreat towards the north countries.

⁴And it came to pass that we did come to the city of Angola[_], and we did take possession of the city, and make preparations to defend ourselves against the Lamanites. And it came to pass that we did fortify the city with [X_ _] our might[_]; but notwithstanding all our fortifications the Lamanites did come upon us and did drive us out of the city.

⁵And they did also drive us forth out of the land of David.

⁶And we marched forth and came to the land of Joshua, which was in the borders west by the sea[_]shore.

⁷And it came to pass that we did gather in our people as fast as it were possible, that we might get them together in one body.

⁸But behold, the land was filled with robbers and with Lamanites; and notwithstanding the great destruction which hung over my people, they did not repent of their evil doings; therefore there was blood and carnage spread throughout all the face of the land, both on the part of the Nephites and also on the part of the Lamanites; and it was one complete[_] revolution throughout all the face of the land.

& now the Lamanites had a King & his name was Aaron & he came against us with an army of forty & ^{four} thousand & behold I withstood him with forty & two thousand & it came to pass that I beat him with my army that he fled before me & behold all this was done & three hundred & thirty years had passed away

& it came to pass that the Nephites began to repent of their iniquities & began to cry even as had been Prophesied by Samuel the Prophet for behold no man could keep that which was his own for the thieves & the Robbers & the murderers & the magic art & the witchcraft which was in the land

thus there began to be a mourning & a lamentation in all the land because of these things & more especially among the People of Nephites

& it came to pass that when I Mormon saw their lamentation[s] & their mourning & their sorrowing before the Lord my heart did begin to rejoice within me knowing the mercies & the long suffering of the Lord therefore supposing that he would be merciful unto them that they would again become a righteous People but behold this my joy was vain for their sorrowing was not unto repentance because of the goodness of God but it was rather the sorrowing of the damned because the Lord would not always suffer them to take happiness in sin

& they did not come unto Jesus with broken hearts & contrite spirits but they did curse God & wish to die nevertheless they would struggle with the sword for their lives

& it came to pass that my sorrow did return unto me again & I saw that the day of grace was passed with them both temporally & spiritually for I saw thousands of them hewn down in open rebellion against their God & heaped up as dung upon the face of the land & thus three hundred & forty & four years had passed away

& it came to pass that in the three hundred & forty & fifth year ~~the~~ the Nephites did begin to flee before the Lamanites & they were persued untill they came even to the land of Jashon before it were possible to stop them in their retreat

¹³But behold this my joy was vain, for their sorrowing was not unto repentance, because of the goodness of God; but it was rather the sorrowing of the damned, because the Lord would not always suffer them to take happiness in sin.

& now the City of Jashon was near the land where Ammoron had deposited 416 the Records unto the Lord that they might not be destroyed, & behold I had gone according to the word of Ammoron & taken the plates of Nephi & did make a Record according to the words of Ammoron

& upon the plates of Nephi I did make a full account of all the wickedness & abominati^{ns}o but upon these plates I did forbare to make a full account of their wickedness & abominations for behold a continual scene of wickedness & abominations has been before mine eyes evers since I have been sufficient to behold the ways of man

& my words did arouse them somewhat to vigor in somuch that they did not flee from before the Lamanites but did stand with boldness against them

& it came to pass that when they had fled we did persue them with our armies & did meet them again & did beat them nevertheless the strength of the Lord was not with us yea we were left to ourselves that the spirit of the Lord did not abide in us therefore we had become weak like unto our brethren

& my heart did sorrow because of this the great calamity of my People because of their wickedness & their abominations but behold we did go forth against the Lamanites & the Robbers of Gaddianton untill we had again taken possession of the lands of our inheritance

& the three hundred & forty & ninth year had passed away & in the three hundred & fiftieth year we made a treaty with the Lamanites & the Robbers of Gaddianton inthewhich we did get the lands of our inheritance divided
