Chapter 13

164 Now it came to pass that after the Sons of Mosiah had Done all these things they took a small number with them and returned to their farther the King and Desirer of him that he would grant unto them that they might with those whome they had Selected to go up to the land of Nephi that they might ~~preach~~ preach the gospel things which they had heard and that they Might impart the word of god to their Bretheren the Lamanites that ~~they~~ perhaps they might bring them to the knowledge of the Lord their God and convince them of the iniquity of their Fathers & that perhaps they might cure them of their hatred towards the Nephites that they might also be brought to rejoice in the ~~Lord~~ their God. that they might become friendly to on another & th~~t~~ their should be no more contentions in all the land which the Lord their God hath given them.

now they were des<sup>r</sup>ous that Salvation should be declared to every creature for they could not bare that any human soul should perish, yea even the very thoughts that any <sup>soul</sup> should endure endless torment did cause them to quake & tremble

& thus did the spirit of the Lord work upon them for they were the very vilest of sinners & the Lord saw fit in his infinite mercy to spare them nevertheless they suffered much anguish of soul because of their iniquities & suffer'g much fearing that they should be cast off forever.

And it came to pass that they did plead with their Father many days that they might go up to the land of Nephi,

And it came to pass that King Mosiah went & enquired of the Lord if he should let his Sons go up among the Lamanites to preach the word

& the Lord said unto Mosiah let them go up for many shall beleive on their words & they shall have Eternal life, and I will deliver thy Sons out of the hands of the Lamanites.

And it came to pass that Mosiah granted that they might go & do according to their request

& they took their Journey into the wilderness to go up to preach the word among the Lamanites. And I shall give an account of their proceedings hereafter.

Now King Mosiah had no one to confer the Kingdom upon for there was not any of his Sons which would accept of the Kingdom therefore he took the reckords which were engraven upon the plates of Brass & also the plates of Nephi & all the things which he had kept & preserved according to the commandments of God & after having Translated & caused to be written the Reckords which were on the plates of Gold which had been found by the people of Limhi which was delivered to him by the hand of Limhi and this he done 16S because of the great anxiety of his people for they were desirous beyond measure to know concerning those people which had been destroyed

& now he translated them by the means of those two stones which was fastened into the two Rims of a bow, now these things was prepared from the beginning & was handed down from Generation to Generation for the purpose of interpreting Languages

& they have been kept & preserved by the hand of the Lord that he should discover to every—— creature which should possess the land the iniquities and abominations of his people

& whosoever has the things is called Seer after the manner of old times,

Now after Mosiah had finished translating these records behold it gave an account of the people which was destroyed from the time that they were Destroyed back to the building of the great Tower at the time the Lord confounded the Languages of the people & they were scattered abroad upon the face of all the Earth yea & even from that time until the creation of Adam, now this account did cause the people of Mosiah to mourn exceedingly yea they were filled with sorrow nevertheless it gave them much knowledgee in the which they did rejoice
