

3 Nephi 5:14

& it hath become expediant that I according to the will of God that the prayer of those which have gone hence which were the holy ones should be fulfilled according to their faith should make a record of these things which have been done

& it hath become expediant that I according to the will of God that the prayer of those which have gone hence which were the holy ones should be fulfilled according to their faith should make a record of these things which have been done

And it hath become expedient that I, according to the will of God, that the prayers of those who have gone hence, who were the holy ones, should be fulfilled according to their faith, should make a record of these things which have been done—

& it hath become expediant that I according to the will of God that the prayer of those which have gone hence which were the holy ones should be fulfilled according to their faith should make a record of these things which have been done
