& they are alike brutal spareing none neither old nor young & they delight in every thing save that which is good & the sufferings of our women & our children upon all the face of this land doth exceed every thing yea tongue cannot tell neither can it be written

And they have become strong in their perversion; and they are alike brutal, sparing none, neither old nor young; and they delight in everything save that which is good; and the suffering of our women and our children upon all the face of this land doth exceed everything; yea, tongue cannot tell, neither can it be written.

& they have become strong in their perversion
& they are alike brutal spareing none neither
our women & our children upon all the face

& they have become strong in their perversion
& they are alike brutal spareing none neither
