An account of Alma & the people of the Lord which was driven into the wilderness by the people of king Noah——

Now Alma having been warned of the Lord that the armies of king Noah would come upon them & had made it known to his people therefore they gathered together their flocks & ~~to~~ took of their grain & departed into the wilderness before the armies of king Noah

& the Lord did strengthen them that the people of king Noah could not overtake them to destroy them

& it came to pass that they fled eight days journey into the wilderness

& they came to a land yea even a verry beautiful & pleasant land a land of pure water

& it came to pass that they pitched their tents & began to till the ground & began to build buildings .&C. yea they were industrious & did labour exceedingly

& it came to pass that the people were desirous that Alma should be their king for he was beloved by his people but he saith unto them behold it is not expediant that we should have a king for thus saith the Lord ye shall not esteem one flesh above another or one man shall not think himself above another therefore I say unto you it is not expediant that ye should have a king nevertheless if it were possible that ye could always have a just man to be your kings it would be well for you to have a king

but remember the iniquity of king Noah & his priests & I myself was caught in a snare & did many things which was abominable in the sight of ~~God~~ the Lord which caused me sore repentance

An account of Alma and the people of the Lord, who were driven into the wilderness by the people of King Noah.[_]

Comprising chapters 23 and 24.

CHAPTER 23

Alma refuses to be king—He serves as high priest—The Lord chastens His people, and the Lamanites conquer the land of Helam—Amulon, leader of King Noah’s wicked priests, rules subject to the Lamanite monarch. About 145–121 B.C.

¹Now Alma, having been warned of the Lord that the armies of king Noah would come upon them, and having made it known to his people, therefore they gathered together their flocks, and [_ _] took of their grain, and departed into the wilderness before the armies of king Noah.

²And the Lord did strengthen them, that the people of king Noah could not overtake them to destroy them.

³And [X_X_X_X_X] they fled eight days’ journey into the wilderness.

⁴And they came to a land, yea, even a ver[_]y beautiful and pleasant land, a land of pure water.

⁵And [X_X_X_X_X] they pitched their tents, and began to till the ground, and began to build buildings [_X_]; yea, they were industrious, and did labo[_]r exceedingly.

⁶And [X_X_X_X_X] the people were desir[_]ous that Alma should be their king, for he was beloved by his people.

⁷But he said[_] unto them: Behold, it is not expedient that we should have a king; for thus saith the Lord: Ye shall not esteem one flesh above another, or one man shall not think himself above another; therefore I say unto you it is not expedient that ye should have a king.

⁸Nevertheless, if it were possible that ye could always have [X] just men to be your kings it would be well for you to have a king.

⁹But remember the iniquity of king Noah and his priests; and I myself was caught in a snare, and did many things which were abominable in the sight of [X] the Lord, which caused me sore repentance;

nevertheless after much tribulation the Lord did hear my cries & did answer my prayes & hath made me an instrument in his hands in bringing so many of you to a knowledge of his truth

nevertheless in this I do not glory for I am unworthy to glory of myself

& now I say unto you as you have been ~~opposed~~ oppressed by king Noah & have been in bondage to him & his priests & have been brought into iniquity by them therefore ye were bound with the bands of iniquity

& now as ye have been delivered by the power of God out of these bonds yea out of the hands of king Noah & his people & also from the bonds of iniquity even so I desire that ye 154 should stand fast in this liberty wherewith ye have been made free & that ye trust no man to be a king over you

& also trusting no one to be your teachers nor your ministers except he be a man of God walking in his ways & keeping his commandments

thus did Alma teach his people that every man should love his neighbor as himself that there should be no contention among them

& now Alma was their high Priest he being the founder of their church

& it came to pass that none received authority to preach or to teach except it were by him from God therefore he consecrated all their priests & all their teachers & none were consecrated except it were just men

therefore they did watch over their people & did nourish them with things pertaining to righteousness

& it came to pass that they began to prosper exceedingly in the land & they called the land Helaman

& it came to pass that they did multiply & prosper exceedingly ~~exceedingly~~ in the land of Helaman & they built a city which they called the city of Helaman

¹⁰Nevertheless, after much tribulation, the Lord did hear my cries, and did answer my prayers, and has[] made me an instrument in his hands in bringing so many of you to a knowledge of his truth.

¹¹Nevertheless, in this I do not glory, for I am unworthy to glory of myself.

¹²And now I say unto you, [X] ye have been [X] oppressed by king Noah, and have been in bondage to him and his priests, and have been brought into iniquity by them; therefore ye were bound with the bands of iniquity.

¹³And now as ye have been delivered by the power of God out of these bonds; yea, even out of the hands of king Noah and his people, and also from the bonds of iniquity, even so I desire that ye should stand fast in this liberty wherewith ye have been made free, and that ye trust no man to be a king over you.

¹⁴And also trust[_ _] no one to be your teacher[] nor your minister[], except he be a man of God, walking in his ways and keeping his commandments.

¹⁵Thus did Alma teach his people, that every man should love his neighbor as himself, that there should be no contention among them.

¹⁶And now, Alma was their high priest, he being the founder of their church.

¹⁷And it came to pass that none received authority to preach or to teach except it were by him from God. Therefore he consecrated all their priests and all their teachers; and none were consecrated except they were just men.

¹⁸Therefore they did watch over their people, and did nourish them with things pertaining to righteousness.

¹⁹And it came to pass that they began to prosper exceedingly in the land; and they called the land Helam[_ _].

²⁰And it came to pass that they did multiply and prosper exceedingly [_ _ _ _ _] in the land of Helam[_ _]; and they built a city, which they called the city of Helam[_ _].

nevertheless the Lord seeth fit to chasten his people yea he tryeth their patience & their faith

nevertheless whosoever patteth his trust in him the same shall be lifted up at the last day yea & thus it was with this people for behold I will shew unto you that they were brought into bondage & none could deliver them but the Lord their God yea even the God of Abraham & of Isaac & of Jacob

& it came to pass that he did deliver them & he did shew forth his mighty power unto them & great was their rejoicings

for behold it came to pass that while they were in the land of Helaman yea in the city of Helaman while tilling the land round about behold an army of the Lamanites were in the borders of the land

now it came to pass that the Brethren of Alma fled from their fields & gathered themselves together into the city of Helaman & they were much frightened because of the appearance of the Lamanites

but Alma went forth & stood among them & exhorted them that they should not be frightened but that they should remember the Lord their God & he would deliver them

therefore they hushed their fears & began to cry unto the Lord that he would soften the hearts of the Lamanites that they would spare them & their wives & children

& it came to pass that the Lord did soften the hearts of the Lamanites & Alma & his brethren went forth & delivered themselves up into their hands & the Lamanites took possession of the Land of Helaman

now the armies of the Lamanites which had followed after the people of king Limhi had been lost in the wilderness for many days

& behold they had found those priests of king Noah in a place which they called Amulon & they had began to possess the land of Amulon & had began to till the ground

now the name of the leader of those priests was Amulon

²¹Nevertheless the Lord seeth fit to chasten his people; yea, he trieth their patience and their faith.

²²Nevertheless—whosoever putteth his trust in him the same shall be lifted up at the last day. Yea, and thus it was with this people.

²³For behold, I will show unto you that they were brought into bondage, and none could deliver them but the Lord their God, yea, even the God of Abraham and [X] Isaac and of Jacob.

²⁴And it came to pass that he did deliver them, and he did show forth his mighty power unto them, and great were their rejoicings.

²⁵For behold, it came to pass that while they were in the land of Helam[], yea, in the city of Helam[], while tilling the land round about, behold an army of the Lamanites was in the borders of the land.

²⁶Now it came to pass that the brethren of Alma fled from their fields, and gathered themselves together in[] the city of Helam[]; and they were much frightened because of the appearance of the Lamanites.

²⁷But Alma went forth and stood among them, and exhorted them that they should not be frightened, but that they should remember the Lord their [] God and he would deliver them.

²⁸Therefore they hushed their fears, and began to cry unto the Lord that he would soften the hearts of the Lamanites, that they would spare them, and their wives, and their children.

²⁹And it came to pass that the Lord did soften the hearts of the Lamanites. And Alma and his brethren went forth and delivered themselves up into their hands; and the Lamanites took possession of the land of Helam[].

³⁰Now the armies of the Lamanites, which had followed after the people of king Limhi, had been lost in the wilderness for many days.

³¹And behold, they had found those priests of king Noah, in a place which they called Amulon; and they had begun to possess the land of Amulon and had begun to till the ground.

³²Now the name of the leader of those priests was Amulon.
