

And now it came to pass that the persecutions which was inflicted on the church by the unbelivers became so great that the church began murmur & complain to their leaders concerning the matter and they did complain to Alma & Alma laid the case before their King Mosiah and Mosiah consulted with his priests, and it came to pass that King Mosiah sent a proclamation throughout the 161 land round about, that there should not any unbeliever persecute any of those which belonged to the church of God,

& there was a strict command throughout all the churches that there should be no persecutions among them that there should be an equality among all men that they should let no pride nor haughtiness disturb their peace that every man should esteem his neighbor as himself labouring with their own hands for their support

yea and all their priests & teachers should labour with their own hands for their support in all cases save it were in sickness or in much want & doing these things they did abound in the grace of God and there began to be much peace again in the land and the people began to be very numerous and began to scatter abroad upon the face of the earth yea on the north & on the South on the east & on the west building large cities and vilages in all quarters of the land

& the Lord did visit them and prosper them & they became a large & a wealthy people.

CHAPTER 27

Mosiah forbids persecution and enjoins equality—Alma the younger and the four sons of Mosiah seek to destroy the Church—An angel appears and commands them to cease their evil course—Alma is struck dumb—All mankind must be born again to gain salvation—Alma and the sons of Mosiah declare glad tidings. About 100–92 B.C.

<sup>1</sup>And now it came to pass that the persecutions which were inflicted on the church by the unbelivers became so great that the church began to murmur, and complain to their leaders concerning the matter; and they did complain to Alma. And Alma laid the case before their king, Mosiah. And Mosiah consulted with his priests.

<sup>2</sup>And it came to pass that king Mosiah sent a proclamation thro[ ]ughout the land round about[ ] that there should not any unbeliever persecute any of those who belonged to the church of God.

<sup>3</sup>And there was a strict command throughout all the churches that there should be no persecutions among them, that there should be an equality among all men;

<sup>4</sup>That they should let no pride nor haughtiness disturb their peace; that every man should esteem his neighbor as himself, [ ]labo[ ]ring with their own hands for their support.

<sup>5</sup>Yea, and all their priests and teachers should labo[ ]r with their own hands for their support, in all cases save it were in sickness, or in much want; and doing these things, they did abound in the grace of God.

<sup>6</sup>And there began to be much peace again in the land; and the people began to be very numerous, and began to scatter abroad upon the face of the earth, yea, on the north and on the south, on the east and on the west, building large cities and villages in all quarters of the land.

<sup>7</sup>And the Lord did visit them and prosper them, and they became a large and [X] wealthy people.

Now the Sons of Mosiah was numbered among the unbelievers & also one of the sons of Alma was numbered among them he being called Alma after his Father nevertheless he became a very wicked & an Idolitrous man & he was a man of many words & did speak much flattery to the people therefore h<sup>o</sup> led many of the people to do after the manner of his iniquities

& he became a great hinderment to the prosperity of the church of God stealing away the hearts of the people causing much discent<sup>i</sup>on among the people giving a chance for the enemy of God exercise his power over them

& now ~~of God to exercise his power~~) it came to pass that while he was going about to destroy the church of God for he did go about secretly with the sons of Mosiah seeking to destroy the church & to lead astray the people of the Lord contrary to the commandments of God or even the King

& as I said unto you as they were going about reb<sup>e</sup>ling against God behold the angel of the Lord appeared unto them & he descended as is wre in a cloud & he spake as it were with a voice of thunder which caused the earth shake upon which they stood,

& so great was their astonishment that they fell to the earth & under<sup>o</sup>ttood not the words which he spake unto them

nevertheless he cried again saying Alma arise & stand forth for why persecutest thou the church of God for the Lord hath said this is my church & I will establish it & nothing shall overthrow it save it is the transgressions of my people

& again the angel sayeth behold the Lord hath heard the prayers of his people & also the prayers of his servant Alma which is thy Father for he hath prayed with much faith 162 concerning thee that thou mightest be brought to the knowledge of the truth thre<sup>e</sup>fore for this purpose have I come to convince thee of the power & authority of God that the prayers of his serrants might be answered according to thier faith.

& now be<sup>o</sup>ld can ye dispute the power of God for behold doth not my voice shake the earth & can ye not also behold me b<sup>e</sup>fore you & I am sent from God.

for said he I have repented of my sins & have been redeemed of the Lord, behold I am born of the spirit

& the Lord unto me marvel not that all makind yea men & women all nations kindreds tongues & people must be born again yea born of God change of their carnal & fal'en state to a state of righteousness being redeemed of God becoming his sons & daughters

& thus they become new creatures & unless they do this they can 163 in nows<sup>o</sup>e inherit the kingdom of God,

I say unto you unless this be the case they must be cast off. and this I know bcause I was like to be cast off.

nevertheless after wadein'g through much tribulation repenting nigh unto death the Lord in mercy hath seen fit to snatch me out of an everlasting burning & I am born of God

my <sup>soul</sup> hath been redeemed from the gall of bitterness & bonds of iniquity I was in the darkest abyss but now I behold the marvilous light of God my soul was wrecked with Eternal torment but I am snatched & my soul is pained no more

I rejected my redeemer & denied that which had been spoken of by our Fathers but now that they may foresee that he will come & that he remembereth every creature of his creating & he will make himself manifest unto all, yea every knee shall bow & every tongue confess before him yea even at the last day when all men shall stand to be Judged of him then shall they confess that he is God then shall they confess who live without God in the world that the Judgment of an everlasting punishment is Just upon them & they shall quake & tremble & shrink bneah the glance of his allsearching eye,
