§ - James

James 1:1

James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

James 1:2

My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

James 1:3

Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

James 1:4

But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

James 1:5

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

James 1:6

But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

James 1:7

For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

James 1:8

A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

James 1:9

Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

James 1:10

But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

James 1:2

My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into many afflictions;

James 1:3

Knowing X, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

James 1:4

But let patience have its perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

James 1:5

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all X liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

James 1:6

But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave H of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

James 1:11

For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

James 1:12

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

James 1:13

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

James 1:14

But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

James 1:15

Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

James 1:16

Do not err, my beloved brethren.

James 1:17

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

James 1:18

Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

James 1:19

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

James 1:20

For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

James 1:12

Blessed is the man that Resisteth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

James 1:21

Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word,
which is able to save your souls.

James 1:22

But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

James 1:23

For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man
beholding his natural face in a glass:

James 1:24

For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

James 1:25

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

James 1:26

If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

James 1:27

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted
from the world.

James 2:1

My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

James 2:2

For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

James 2:3

And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

James 2:4

Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

James 2:5

Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

James 2:6

But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

James 2:7

Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

James 2:8

If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

James 2:9

But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

James 2:1

My breatheren ye cannot have the faith of our Lord Jesus christ an the Lord of glory and yet have respect to persons

James 2:2

Now if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

James 2:3

And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto Phelps him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

James 2:4

Are ye not then in yousselves partial judges and become evil in your thoughts

James 2:7

Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

James 2:10

For whosoever shall keep the whole law,
and yet offend in one point,
he is guilty of all.

James 2:11

For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

James 2:12

So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

James 2:13

For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy;
and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

James 2:14

What doth it profit,
my brethren, though a man say he hath faith,
and have not works? can faith save him?

James 2:15

If a brother or sister be naked,
and destitute of daily food,

James 2:16

And one of you say unto them,
Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled;
notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body;
what doth it profit?

James 2:17

James 2:21

Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

James 2:22

Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

James 2:23

And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness; and he was called the Friend of God.

James 3:1

My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

James 3:2

For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

James 3:3

Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us;
and we turn about their whole body.

James 3:4

Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

James 3:5

Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

James 3:6

And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity:
so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

James 3:7

For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea,
is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

James 3:8

But the tongue can no man tame;
it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

James 3:9

Therewith bless we God, even the Father;
and therewith curse we men,
which are made after the similitude of God.

James 3:1

My brethren strive not for the mastery knowing that in so doing
we shall receive the greater condemnation

James 3:6

And the tongue X a fire, a world of iniquity:

Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

James 3:11

Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

James 3:12

Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

James 3:13

Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

James 3:14

But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

James 3:15

This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

James 3:16

For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

James 3:17

But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

James 4:2

Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

James 4:3

Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

James 4:4

Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

James 4:5

Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?
